

No telling where the money went

Financial elder abuse: Risk management for the practice

Professional development program 2011-2012

“The stark reality is that lawyers will be advising older clients who will become the victims of such abuse.

Discovering that you may have assisted in providing the key to the abuse must be a lawyer’s worst nightmare”.

Carolyn Poynton
Editor
Private client advisor (U.K.)
Volume 8 Issue 2

Find out about:

What is financial elder abuse?

How and where does it usually happen?

The role of the legal practitioner in prevention of abuse

The importance of protecting your practice

An opportunity for you to learn more about this important issue

Gain 3 CPD points

Registration

Registration is essential to secure your place.

To register:

Option 1

Download the registration form and send by mail

Option 2

Register on line at www.mlta.com.au

Enquiries:

T 0448 702 766

E info@mlta.com.au

Choice of ten locations

Bendigo	09/02/2012	1 - 5	Foundry Hotel complex
Morwell	13/02/2012	1 - 5	La Trobe Community Health Service
Geelong	16/02/2012	1 - 5	Four Points Sheraton
Ballarat	20/02/2012	1 - 5	Ballarat Learning Exchange
Warrnambool	23/02/2012	1 - 5	Lady Bay Resort
Horsham	27/02/2012	9 - 1	Wimmera Business Centre
Shepparton	01/03/2012	1 - 5	Greater Shepparton Business Centre
Frankston	02/03/2012	1 - 5	Peninsula County Golf Club
Mildura	27/03/2012	1 - 5	Mildura Grand Hotel
Wangaratta	30/03/2012	9 - 1	Quality Hotel Wangaratta Gateway

Medico-Legal Training Australia (ACN 075 050 145)
Training Professional development Consultancy Research

This program is financially supported by Professional Standards Councils